

Vision: The Veterinary Outreach Information Centre for Extension (VOICE) is aimed to provide single window innovative livestock extension services addressing the prevalent and potential challenges ahead in Livestock sector.

Expected Outcome

All the proposed activities will lead to

To bring about half on the livestock farming community of the region under the ambit of organized livestock extension service delivery system.

- Establishment of proven scientific model of livestock farming 10-20 percent of farming community.
- Enhancement / upgradation of knowledge and skill of human resources associated with livestock sector.
- Increased the Livestock productivity by at least 10 percent through adoption of cutting-edge technologies for sustainable livestock development.

SK-VOICE(SKUAST Kashmir -Veterinary Outreach Information Centre for Extension)

